Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This house faces north. It is sited on a hilltop directly overlooking Hunting Creek Road (Hwy. 521). It is a single-pile, two-story, framed and weatherboarded house, built between about 1890 and 1910. It has a two-bay facade; the doorway, situated off-center toward the west, is sidelighted and transomed. There is one central ridgeline brick stove flue. The roof is covered with decoratively molded sheet metal. The roofline is distinguished by a broad front-facing gable. The one-story porch is supported by turned posts that have recently been replaced. Vinyl siding is also a recent addition. There is a single-story framed and weatherboarded rear extension.
